

CLAUDIA PRSA

ABOUT ME

Having been a student of personal development for the last 15 years her experience spans reprogramming and clearing outdated unconscious beliefs and old programming around life which we often inherited from our childhood. into new empowering ones, change of mindsets, heal trauma, and shift wealth and abundance consciousness from lack to overflow. Her gift is intuitively reading the blocks so that they can be cleared and transformed instantly.

She has been helping hundreds with achieving a more positive growth mindset and helped them therefore to have a better understanding and more focus in what it is they desire in their lives. Other benefits of understanding, adapting and shifting your mindset, are improving your health, decreasing your stress and becoming more resilient to life's challenges.

Learn how to make life easier, more positive and more joyful by coming out of hiding and getting comfortable with being confident in who you are, and get the support in reprogramming your subconscious mind so that creating abundance and success is more accessible and truly possible for you. Most importantly learn to create the mindset to achieve what you are truly capable of and to fulfill your potential. You're going to learn how to quiet the inner critic.

Identity and clear outdated unconscious beliefs and old programming around life into new empowering beliefs, heal trauma, and shift wealth and abundance consciousness from lack to overflow.
